

Chinese New Year 2015 (Year of the Sheep) Celebration in Woking

The Chinese Association of Woking (CAW), in partnership with Woking Borough Council, will welcome the Chinese New Year in Woking Town Centre on Saturday 21st February 2015.

To celebrate this thousands year's old tradition, the CAW is putting on an extravaganza featuring Lion Dancing, Chinese Dancing and Martial Arts displays. The CAW will deliver a broad spectrum of events to share this Chinese cultural experience with you.

The lion dancers will lead a parade along Mercia Walk, Commercial Way, Market Walk and Jubilee Square. The parade will start at 11:45am and will be followed by 2 shows at 12:00 and 13:45 in Jubilee Square. As usual, CAW members will run a variety of stalls from 10am to 4pm on Mercia Walk at Woking Town Centre including Chinese Name Writing, Chinese arts & crafts and Traditional Chinese New Year snacks.

Please note that if it rains, then the shows will be moved to the food court of the Peacock Centre.

If you would like more information on this event, please contact: Mrs Michelle Wong at pr@cawoking.org.uk.
