- However, there may be times when a decision is so urgent that there is no time to call a Governors' meeting. If a delay would seriously harm a person or the school, the Chair or Vice-Chair has the power to take a decision on behalf of the Governing Body. If neither is available, the Headteacher can act as necessary and must seek the Governing Body's retrospective approval as soon as possible. - A meeting must also be held if at least three Governors of the Governing Body ask for one.
- Every Governor of the Governing Body must be given at least seven clear days' written notice of the date of a meeting with a copy of the agenda for that meeting.
- Shorter notice can only be given if the Chair (or the Vice-Chair if the Chair is absent) agrees that there is an urgent need for a meeting.

- A meeting must be chaired by a chairperson (the “Chairperson”). This would normally be the Chair (or the Vice-Chair if the Chair is absent). In the event that both the Chair and the Vice-Chair are absent, the Governors must elect from among their number, who are present at the meeting, to act as the Chairperson for that meeting.

F. Taking decisions

IV. Safeguarding Policy for Children

Chinese Association of Working recognises that children have the right to be safe, secure and free from threat. The welfare of the child is paramount.

Chinese Association of Working will provide an environment that ensures children are safe from potential abuse, and will respond to any suspicion of potential abuse in a way which respects the child's dignity and reinforces the adult's responsibility to the child.

What is abuse?

All volunteers should note the following definitions and pass on any concerns to the nominated officer.

Abuse may be described as:

“An act, or failure to act, by the person responsible for the care of the child. It may involve cruelty, exploitation or neglect”.

Abuse takes many forms. Working Together to Safeguard Children (DoH 1999) provides key definitions:

Physical Abuse

Physical abuse may involve hitting, shaking, throwing, poisoning, burning, or scalding, drowning, suffocating, or otherwise causing physical harm to a child. Physical harm may also be caused when a parent or carer feigns the symptoms of or deliberately causes ill health to a child whom they are looking after. This situation is commonly described using terms such as fictitious illness by proxy or Munchausen syndrome by proxy.

Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to meet a child's basic physical and/or psychological needs likely to result in the serious impairment of the child's health and development. It may involve a parent or carer failing to provide adequate food, shelter, and clothing, failing to protect a child from physical harm or danger or the failure to ensure access to appropriate medical care or treatment. It may also include unresponsiveness to a child's basic emotional needs.

Sexual Abuse

Sexual abuse involves forcing or enticing a child or young person to take part in activities, whether or not the child is aware of what is happening. The activities may involve physical contact, including penetrative (e.g. rape or buggery) or non-penetrative acts. They may include non-contact activities, such as involving children in looking at pornographic material or watching sexual activities, or encouraging children to behave in sexually inappropriate ways.

Emotional Abuse

Emotional abuse is the persistent emotional ill treatment of a child such as to cause severe and persistent adverse effect on the child's emotional development. It may involve conveying to children that they are worthless or unloved, inadequate or valued only insofar that they meet the needs of another person. It may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on children. It may involve causing children frequently to feel frightened or in danger, or the exploitation of children. Some level of emotional abuse is involved in all types of ill treatment of a child, though it may occur alone.

Statement of principles

Principles of good practice ensure that all children are protected from harm. Such principles will help to ensure the promotion of children's health and welfare, including their physical, emotional, social and intellectual development.

These principles include:

- Treating children as individuals entitled to dignity and respect.
- Promoting effective partnerships amongst all those involved.
- with children, including children's parents/carers, to improve children's welfare.
- Promoting the safety of children.
- Raising awareness of best practice in how to protect children from harm of all kinds.
- Minimising risks to children so that they do not suffer harm.
- Making safety the responsibility of everyone at Chinese Association of Woking whose work brings them into contact with children.
- Establishing effective and open procedures in responding to accidents, complaints or concerns so that they can be shared and dealt with promptly.
- Adopting and applying safe recruitment practices for all volunteers.

The primary concern must be the interests and safety of children. This will be achieved through adherence to the Chinese Association of Woking Safeguarding Policy for Children.

Reporting and recording concerns

Volunteers involved with Chinese Association of Woking are required to promptly pass on any concerns about possible child abuse or concerns about the welfare and safety of a child to the Safeguarding Officer for Children. Please refer to the back of the policy manual for an up-to-date list of the Safeguarding Officer for Children.

The Officer needs to make a judgement as to whether the allegation or concerns need to be passed on to the authorities or be discussed with the parents/carers first. (It is important that NO assumptions are made that parents could not abuse their child because they appear pleasant).

If a volunteer receives an allegation of abuse against another member of volunteer they should promptly inform the Safeguarding Officer for Children.

NB. It is essential that the volunteer records what they have seen or heard which has led them to believe that a child's welfare or safety is at risk. The Safeguarding Officer for Children also needs to keep clear and concise records. There also needs to be a record of the action taken and why that action was decided upon.

Volunteers should bear in mind that it is not their remit to investigate an allegation.

Records should include the following details:

- Name of the child
- Parent's/carer's details
- The child's address
- Relevant telephone numbers
- What is said to have happened or what was seen
- When it occurred
- Who else was there
- What was said by those involved
- Whether there is any actual evidence e.g. bruises, bleeding, change in behaviour
- Who has been told about it
- Who was concerned
- Was the child able to say what happened
- Whether the parents have been advised
- Sign and date the record ensuring it is legible and written in black ink
- When an incident /event is reported it is paramount that the exact words that the child has used are noted. It is imperative that this information is recorded immediately and that the exact wordings are noted.

All information about concerns regarding the welfare of a child needs to be kept confidential and should only be passed on to other volunteers if it is essential for them to know.

Recruitment and Selection of Volunteers;

The following measures need to be taken to reduce the risk of abuse by volunteers.

The management of the Chinese Association of Woking need to: -

- Ensure that adults who volunteer with Chinese Association of Woking who have contact with children during the course of their voluntary services are aware of the fact that such work is exempt from the provision laid down in the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 and will therefore be subject to a Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS) check prior to starting work.
- Require all potential volunteers to provide references, attend interview where necessary and be subject to DBS check.
- Original birth certificates or passports will be used to verify dates of birth, as this can be a major risk of evasion from detection.
- All new projects undertaken by Chinese Association of Woking should consider issues relating to child protection, in particular, ensure that training is given to all adults involved with the care and education of children which will help them recognise and respond to suspected abuse of children whether physical, emotional, sexual or as a result of neglect.

- Never allow a non-DBS checked adult to be alone, on a regular basis, with a child or children e.g. going to the toilet or supervising children in a separate room.

Supervision of children and Supervision of volunteers

Supervision of Children

Chinese Association of Woking recognises that the safety of children should be of paramount concern at all times. To help achieve this there should be proper supervision of children at all times. This will ensure that they are less likely to come to harm.

Children who come into contact with volunteers of Chinese Association of Woking will be kept safe. This will be achieved by ensuring the following: -

- Those in charge are fully competent to be so.
- Children are supervised at all times.
- The ratio of pupils to teacher is no more than 20 to 1.
- There are sufficient volunteers.
- As far as possible adults will work in pairs.
- Activities are planned and appropriate.
- Adults are allocated specific roles such as teachers, administrators, patrolling officers etc.
- Where appropriate volunteers have received an enhanced DBS check.

Supervision of Volunteers

It is important that volunteers do not engage in behaviour that could be misinterpreted.

Volunteers need to be aware of the boundaries, to be open in the way they deal with children and to know that they are in an environment where any concerns can be passed on. Volunteers should try to ensure that they are not alone with children and that other volunteers or pupils are present.

The following guidelines should be followed by all Volunteers:

- Avoid situations where a child is completely unobserved.
- Do not spend excessive amounts of time alone with a child.
- Do not take children on a car journey alone however short without parental consent.
- Do not take children to your home where they will be alone with you.
- Do not engage in rough, physical or sexually provocative games including horseplay.
- Do not allow or engage in any form of inappropriate touching.
- Do not allow children to use inappropriate language unchallenged.
- Do not make sexually suggestive comments to a child even in fun.
- Do not allow allegations made by a child to go unchallenged, unrecorded or not acted upon.
- Do not do things of a personal nature for a child which they can do themselves.
- If a volunteer should accidentally hurt a child, or if a child seems distressed in any manner or misunderstands or misinterprets something a member of volunteer has done then the incident should be reported as soon as possible to another colleague and a brief written note made. Parents/carers should then be informed of the incident.

The Board of Trustees of Chinese Association of Woking are specifically responsible for ensuring that Child Protection is accorded the necessary status within the organisation and making sure that all volunteers working with children follow this Policy.

We are a TELLING school. This means that anyone who knows that bullying is happening is expected to tell a member of the volunteer team.

Definition of Bullying

Bullying is an act of aggression, causing embarrassment, pain or discomfort to someone. It can take a number of forms; physical, verbal, making gestures, extortion and exclusion. ### Objectives of this Policy

- All Governors, teaching and non-teaching volunteers, students, and parents should have an understanding of what bullying is.
- All Governors, teaching and non-teaching volunteers should know what the school policy is on bullying, and follow it when bullying is reported.

VII. Complaints Policy and Procedures

The Woking Chinese School is managed by the Chinese Association of Woking. The school aims to provide high quality teaching of the Chinese language and cultural activities, and encourage pupils to learn and understand the Chinese culture. We believe children and parents are entitled to expect courtesy and prompt careful attention to their needs and wishes. Our intention is to work in partnership with parents and the community in general.

We welcome suggestions on how to improve our school.

Making concerns known

- Any parent or person who has concern about any aspect of the school should first of all talk over the matter with the appropriate class-teacher of the child or the headteacher.
- If this does not have a satisfactory outcome within two weeks, or if the problem recurs, the parent or person should put the concern or complaint in writing and request a meeting with the Chairperson of the Governing Body. The parent or person and the Chairperson should have a partner or friend present as support and a witness if required. An agreed written record of the discussion should be made.

Most complaints should be resolved informally or at this initial stage

- If the matter is still not resolved to the satisfaction of the parent or person, then the Chairperson should again be approached to request for the involvement of an external mediator.
- It might be helpful to invite an external mediator, one who is acceptable to both parties, to listen to both sides and offer advice if the parent or person and the school cannot reach an agreement. A mediator has no legal powers, but can help to clarify the situation.
- The mediator will help to define the problem, review the action so far and suggest further ways in which the matter might be resolved.
- The mediator will keep an agreed written record of the meeting and any advice given.
- The mediator will keep all discussion confidential.

We believe that most complaints are made constructively and can be resolved at an early stage.

We also believe that it is in the best interests of the school and parents that complaints should be taken seriously and dealt with fairly, respectfully and confidentially.
